NOTICE

You have the right to restrict certain disclosures of Protected Health Information (PHI) to a health plan if they pay out-of-pocket in full for the healthcare service. You have the right to be notified if there is breach of your unsecured PHI. You must sign an authorization before BMNA can release your PHI for any uses and disclosures not described in this Privacy Notice.
Breach Notification Addendum to Policies & Procedures: 1. When the Practice becomes aware of or suspects a breach, as defined in Section 1 of the breach notification Overview, the Practice will conduct a Risk Assessment, as outlined in Section 2.A of the Overview. The Practice will keep a written record of that Risk Assessment. 2. Unless the Practice determines that there is a low probability that PHI has been compromised, the Practice will give notice of the breach as described in Sections 2.B and 2.C of the breach notification Overview. 3. The risk assessment can be done by a business associate if it was involved in the breach. While the business associate will conduct a risk assessment of a breach of PHI in its control, the Practice will provide any required notice to patients and HHS. 4. After any breach, particularly one that requires notice, the Practice will re-assess its privacy and security practices to determine what changes should be made to prevent the re-occurrence of such breaches.
This practice will also obtain an authorization from you before using or disclosing PHI in a way that is not described in this Notice: 1. When the use and disclosure without your consent or authorization is allowed under other sections of Section 164.512 of the Privacy Rule and the state's confidentiality law. 2. This includes certain narrowly-defined disclosures to law enforcement agencies, to a health oversight agency (such as HHS or a state department of health), to a coroner or medical examiner, for public health purposes relating to disease or FDA-regulated products, or for specialized government functions such as fitness for military duties, eligibility for VA benefits, and national security and intelligence. 3. Right to Restrict Disclosures When You Have Paid for Your Care Out-of-Pocket. You have the right to restrict certain disclosures of PHI to a health plan when you pay out-of-pocket in full for my services. 4. Right to Be Notified if There is a Breach of Your Unsecured PHI. You have a right to be notified if: (a) there is a breach (a use or disclosure of your PHI in violation of the HIPAA Privacy Rule) involving your PHI; (b) that PHI has not been encrypted to government standards; and (c) the risk assessment of this practice fails to determine that there is a low probability that your PHI has been compromised.

Informed Consent for Teleneuropsychological (Telehealth) Services, if applicable

Prior to starting audio-/video-/tele-conferencing (telepsychology/telehealth) services, we discussed and agreed to the following:

- There are potential benefits and risks of receiving services in this way (e.g. limits to your confidentiality) that differ from in-person sessions.
- Confidentiality still applies for telepsychology (telehealth) services, and nobody will record the session without the permission from the others person(s).
- We agree to use the video-conferencing platform selected for our virtual sessions, and the provider will explain how to use it.
- You need to use a webcam or smartphone during the session.
- It is important to be in a quiet, private space that is free of distractions (including cell phone or other devices) during the session.
- It is important to use a secure internet connection rather than public/free Wi-Fi.
- It is important to be on time. If you need to cancel or change your appointment, you must notify the provider in advance by phone or email.
- We need a back-up plan (e.g., phone number where you can be reached) to restart the session or to reschedule it, in the event of technical problems.
- We need a safety plan that includes at least one emergency contact and the closest ER to your location, in the event of a crisis situation.
- If you are not an adult (18 or older), we need the permission of your parent or legal guardian (and their contact information) for you to participate in these sessions.
- You must confirm with your insurance company that these telepsychology (telehealth) sessions will be reimbursed; if they are not reimbursed, you are responsible for full payment.
- As your psychologist (or other provider), I may determine that due to certain circumstances, telepsychology (telehealth) is no longer appropriate and that we will terminate appropriately, or resume our sessions in-person.
- Due to Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic precautions, this evaluation reflects reduced exposure to the patient/client/examinee in terms of cognitive testing and documentation limited to essential psychological and neuropsychological issues: Although such tele-based assessment techniques have been shown to be reliable and valid (e.g., Cullum et al., 2014), you hereby acknowledge that there are limitations of objective neuro/psychological assessment when receiving services in this way.
